

Articling Student Position

Commencing: January 2018

Area of Law: Employment and Labour Relations Law

Experience: n/a

Firm: Overholt Law

Position: Articling Student

Location: Vancouver

We have a position available for an articling student commencing in January 2018. Candidates should have a strong academic record, excellent drafting skills, a desire to work in a small firm environment, a strong command of technology (including social media) and a commitment to the practice of law. A demonstrated interest in labour and employment law or past human resources management experience is an asset.

We are proud of the diversity of our staff and our collegial environment. Our workplace focuses on team work, mentoring, the needs of our clients, service to our community and continuing legal education. The successful candidate will experience a mix of both litigation and solicitor's work.

Overholt Law is a boutique employment and labour relations law firm located in the heart of the downtown Vancouver business community. Carman J. Overholt Q.C. established Overholt Law in 2012. Since that time, our firm has grown to four lawyers. We provide legal assistance to a diverse group of clients in most sectors of the economy. We pride ourselves on a collegial environment with lawyers committed to the legal profession, client service and our community generally.
